FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 6/14/17

Parks & Recreation Master Plan

Cleveland, TN – The City of Cleveland is inviting the public to discuss and provide input on the city’s newly developed parks and recreation master plan. The master plan is utilized to guide the development and re-development of the City’s recreational facilities and assets.

The information meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 20, 2017 at the Cleveland/Bradley Public Library located at 795 Church Street, Cleveland. Parks and Recreation staff and city officials are excited to discuss the future of the City’s recreational facilities and receive feedback from the community.

All residents are invited and encouraged to attend and participate in this informational meeting. For questions, please contact (423) 479-4129.
